

JUSTICE FOR JESSI

GUN VIOLENCE PREVENTION 2016

A conversation with Sandy and Lonnie Phillips, Jessi's parents, founders of Jessi's Message

Jessi Ghawi was a beautiful 24-year-old aspiring sports reporter when she and 11 others were gunned down and killed in the tragic Aurora theater shooting in July 2012. Her parents, Sandy and Lonnie Phillips, will be in San Diego to talk about what their organization, Jessi's Message, is doing to support other victims and survivors of this country's rampant gun violence and to discuss the sensible gun legislation that is needed to prevent shootings like this from happening again and again.

Please join us for this important conversation.

Saturday March 5
3 - 5 pm

Mission Valley
Public Library

2123 Fenton Parkway
San Diego, 92108

Sponsored by:

